Circular to principals of Victorian Catholic schools

New Catholic School Parents Victoria website launched

Main Points

- Catholic School Parents Victoria (CSPV) is the statewide representative body for parents and carers of students in Catholic schools. As an advisory body to VCEA, CSPV plays a key role in strengthening the partnership between families, schools and the Church.
- It promotes parents as the first educators of their children and supports their active engagement in their child's journey in Catholic education.
- CSPV has recently developed new branding and a new website that serves as a central hub of information and resources for parents: www.cspv.catholic.edu.au.
- The website includes:
 - insights into pedagogy and learning within Catholic schools.
 - a wealth of resources addressing key health and wellbeing topics relevant to families.
 - diocese-specific information relating to faith, including approaches to Religious Education and sacramental life.
- In addition, CSPV has established a social media presence across LinkedIn, Facebook and Instagram.
- These platforms are designed to extend CSPV's reach further and provide timely, accessible information and support to families.

Principals are invited to share the following content via the school newsletter or communication portal.

Catholic School Parents Victoria – Supporting Families in Catholic Education

Catholic School Parents Victoria (CSPV) has been re-established to strengthen the voice of parents and carers in Catholic education across Victoria, recognising parents as the first educators and key partners in their child's learning, wellbeing and faith journey.

CSPV is guided by a Council of parent representatives from across the state, ensuring that the diverse perspectives of families in Catholic schools are reflected in its work and advocacy.

We invite you to explore the CSPV website at www.cspv.catholic.edu.au where you will find a wealth of information and resources to support your parenting journey within Catholic education, including guidance on wellbeing, faith, learning and key issues impacting families. You can also subscribe via the website to join the CSPV community, receive the quarterly newsletter and be invited to upcoming events.

You can also connect with CSPV on LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook to access valuable insights, updates and practical resources.

Together, we can continue to strengthen the partnership between families, schools and the wider Catholic community.
